

BEE CAVES WEST

Bee Caves West is a retail shell building designed by the DCA and is an example of site planning as well as architectural design. The buildings are arranged on the site to protect a grove of beautiful live oaks and to provide a restaurant terrace lease space under the canopy of the trees. Contemporary metal cladding is juxtaposed with local stone and heavy timber columns. Both structured and surface parking are provided on the site.

THE GROVE

location:
austin, tx

size:
3,500 sq. ft.

completed:
december 2007

LOLA SAVANNAH

location:
austin, tx

size:
1,800 sq. ft.

completed:
december 2007